

The Journey of Faith and Restoration with Adrian Ward Jr

In this powerful episode, Michele sits down with Adrian Ward Jr, host of the 'Even If' podcast, to share his inspiring journey from experiencing early childhood trauma and abuse, to finding faith, restoration, and purpose. Adrian opens up about his personal challenges, including infidelity and the healing process with his wife, reflecting on the transformational power of genuine faith and the importance of community support. Listeners will be encouraged by Adrian's story of overcoming adversity through spirituality, family, and self-discovery.

Old School welcomes to class, Adrian Ward Jr., a man of deep faith and resilience. Sharing his turbulent yet transformative journey, Adrian delves into his past experiences of abuse, and struggles with identity and faith, and how sports and a desperate moment led him to a path of healing and purpose. Throughout the conversation, they explore the power of vulnerability, the impact of undiscussed trauma on personal growth, and the redemptive capacity of true faith and community support. This episode is a riveting testimony to the healing and guiding hand of faith through life's darkest and brightest moments.

Introduction to Adrian Ward Jr

Adrian's Early Life and Challenges

Finding Purpose and Restoration

Healing through Marriage Intensive

Reflections on Faith and Community

Adrian's Early Life and Challenges

Finding Faith and Purpose

Healing, Redemption, and Moving Forward

Connect with Adrian:

Podcast: Even If